REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

In its second year, Muller Road Middle continued to build upon its successes with a non-traditional instructional model. Students continued to use individual iPads for instructional research, writing, reading, and assessments, as well as creating content driven projects to demonstrate their mastery of subjects. We continued our professional development emphasis on designing engaging lessons that meet the needs of all students. As a paperless and no-textbook school, teachers used state standards as their roadmaps for instruction, while concentrating their efforts on developing students' critical thinking skills and helping students understand how to find and discern good information.

Teachers rallied together to forge new instructional methods as we explored project-based and problem-based learning platforms. Integrated projects were piloted and spawned a new school-within-a-school program for next school year. The new iSchool will house two PBL programs designed by teachers to tap into student curricular interests while allowing students the opportunities to ask and solve essential global and local questions gleaned from the world around us. Our honors populations continue to thrive on the challenges of academic rigor, and they often showcased their knowledge and abilities through presentations of learning with their peers. Our numbers of Junior Scholars grew, as our students became more confident in their abilities and subject mastery.

Numerous student support systems also remain in place, from remediation programs to credit recovery opportunities for students who fall short of subject mastery. Teachers offer numerous tutoring sessions each week, either before school or after school. Additionally, we continue to offer our A/B/Not Yet policy which allows students the ability to retake or redo tests or assignments for which they did not meet the minimums for mastery.

Outside of our classrooms, students were often engaged in numerous extracurricular activities from athletics to service organizations and clubs. Our students were active in participating in charitable drives, from raising money for victims of violence to donating more than a ton of food in our annual winter food drive.

We continued to have visitors from around the state visit us to see the great things happening here. Our door is always open, and we'd love to share with you the incredible transformations taking place here!
